Depart Sydney in the morning and head to orchard for a day of exciting pick allyou-can-ear charries. Stop off at the Rose Gardens on the way to smell the roses on the main concourse and to take pictures among the plentiful flowers. Continue on to Australia's Motor Racing Circuit to get a taste of the exhilarating speeds on the tracks-almost like you could be flying! When you research the summit of the rasetrack, take in magnificent views of the town of Bathurst. You might be able to see some cherry and fruit orchards too! Head to Bathurst in the afternoon for lunch (many restaurant chelses) at your own in spenses and follow on to the cherry orchards - the highlight of the day. Pick and taste the freshest and swestest cherries with your close friends and family and don't forget to pick some home to share with those missing out! Cherries can be purchased for $5-$7/lig, Return back to Sydney, brigging home treasured riversories and experiences.
